Art and Artists in Nature

Sunday, August 27 / 11 a.m. - 3 p.m. / All activities are FREE

11:00 a.m.-
1 p.m. Meet Pittsburgh-based Visiting Artists In Residence Lenka Clayton and Phillip Andrew Lewis and view their new outdoor installation, Twenty-Nine Tragedies.

11:00 a.m.-
3p.m. Join St. Louis-based, Kranzberg Exhibition Artist Vaughn Davis, Jr. in a large-scale collaborative painting project. Be sure to also stop in the Aronson Fine Arts Center to see his solo exhibition, The Fabric of Our Time.

Connect with nature as a citizen scientist through Laumeier's Biodiversity Project coordinated by Resident Community Artist Emily Hemeyer.

Bring your kite, buy one in Gracie's Shop, or make one with the Gateway Kite Club! Learn tips and tricks for successful kite flying in any weather.

Team up with Resident Community Artist Lindsay Pichaske to create a collaborative clay sculpture.

Create wind-driven art: flags and windchimes
