

PHOTOGRAPHY AND FILM POLICY FORM

Laumeier Sculpture Park restricts photography and filming of its sculpture collection to avoid conflicts with copyright law that protects artist rights. Many of the sculptures on view at Laumeier are part of the Permanent Collection, while others are on temporary or long-term loan to the Park. In either case, neither Laumeier nor St. Louis County Parks have secured permission from the multiple artists for unrestricted reproduction (photography and film included) of their creative works. The copyright, which governs reproduction rights, to the individual works of art are held by the artists themselves, or their estates. Laumeier makes no claim to represent the copyright holders nor does Laumeier provide permission for third parties to photograph or film artwork for distribution without the express written permission of the copyright holder. Laumeier values the experience of our visitors and places great importance on visitor safety.

To guarantee a safe and quality experience for all visitors, Laumeier limits photography and filming under the following regulations:

- Laumeier allows visitors to photograph the Outdoor Collection and special events for their own personal use. Photography is permitted during regular Park hours: daily from 8:00 a.m.–30 minutes past sunset.
- Photography must be conducted without disruption to Laumeier’s operations or limitation to the accessibility of exhibitions, entrances/exits, trails and high-traffic areas.
- Photography is not allowed inside the Museum Gallery (with or without artificial light).
- Laumeier reserves the right to refuse permission or terminate a shoot at any time if it is not in the best interest of the artists represented in the Collection; our visitors, donors, or guests; or if it conflicts with the mission of Laumeier Sculpture Park.
- All photography or filming of a non-personal nature (i.e. editorial, commercial, advertisement) must be approved by Laumeier one week (seven days) prior to shooting.
- Drone usage is prohibited at Laumeier Sculpture Park without obtaining advance permit approval from both Laumeier and the St. Louis County Parks Department. Please contact communications@laumeier.org for more information.
- Please reference this list of artists and works in our permanent collection for which Laumeier does not have copyright permission:

 - Robert Stackhouse, St. Louie Bones
 - Tony Tasset, Eye

- Laumeier reserves the right to approve final content for any publication in any form in which images of Laumeier Sculpture Park will appear.
- If photos/video that include sculptures at Laumeier are used for any type of promotional purpose or public distribution by the photographer/videographer (website, social media, magazine feature, etc.), a credit must be given to the artist (artist name, title of piece) and Laumeier. Please contact Laumeier before use to request accurate credit information.
- Laumeier assumes no responsibility for any royalties or fees claimed against the applicant or Laumeier by third parties.

These rules are subject to change without prior notice at Laumeier’s discretion.

By signing this form, I acknowledge receipt of the Laumeier Sculpture Park Photography & Film Policy and hold Laumeier harmless for any violations of said policies and procedures.
